

WINTERTHUR

get inspired

Application
deadline
JANUARY 15

The Research Fellowship Program at Winterthur

Research fellows live on the museum grounds within easy walking distance of the library and museum. Winterthur offers the following funding opportunities:

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships

One or two semesters. Applicants must be US citizens or residents.
Stipend: up to $40,000.

This fellowship is supported by the NEH Fellowship Programs at Independent Research Institutions. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Winterthur Dissertation Fellowships

One or two semesters for doctoral candidates conducting dissertation research and writing. Stipend: $7,000 per semester.

Short-term Research Fellowships

One- to three-month fellowships for academic, independent, and museum scholars. Stipend: $1,500 per month. Applicants need not apply for a named fellowship, but we do designate certain awards:

Faith Andrews Fellowships

Study of Shaker life and material culture

Robert Lee Gill Fellowship

Research on American decorative arts, painting, architecture, or historic preservation

Neville McD. Thompson Fellowships

Study of domestic life, late 19th- and early 20th-century design, and material culture

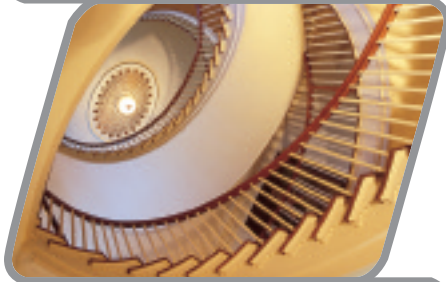

Photo: Jeanette Lindberg

For more information, please contact Rosemary Krill at 302.888.4637 or rkrill@winterthur.org

please post

extraordinary collections • peaceful environment • stimulating colleagues think...research...read...write...

think...research...read...write...

The Research Fellowship Program at Winterthur provides scholars with opportunities to work in one of the great repositories of research materials on social and cultural history, art and architectural history, decorative arts and design, and topics in the history of everyday life. Collections are rich in material relating to the colonies of British North America and the United States from the seventeenth to the mid-twentieth centuries.

American Material Culture
Architecture
Decorative Arts and Design
Art and Visual Culture
Consumer Culture
Garden & Landscape Studies
Shaker Studies

Travel and Tourism
The Atlantic World
Childhood and Family Life
Literary Culture
Food History
Conservation Studies
Other areas of social & cultural history

For application materials and a list of recently funded projects, visit winterthur.org/fellowship