As the new year dawns, we pause to reflect on all that made the past year such a remarkable one at Winterthur. Although not immune to the challenging headlines, Winterthur charted a careful course in 2009. Excellence in programming and enthusiasm for its mission were key to a year in which innovative approaches allowed Winterthur to maintain equilibrium.

The generous and unfailing support of donors, Members, friends, and volunteers was critically important and provided the opportunity for many memorable moments. As the Honor Roll of Donors unfolds in the pages that follow, we gratefully acknowledge the network of support that bolstered Winterthur’s 2009 fiscal year, even as we celebrate many of the unforgettable events that marked this important time. The following list recognizes donations received between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2009.

2009 IN REVIEW

Photography Workshop—Attendees got up-close with the flora of the Winterthur Garden as they created their own photographic masterpieces in Allen Bokush’s workshop on digital garden photography.

Enchanted Summer Day—The Upside-Down Tree, the newest feature in Enchanted Woods, debuted at June’s annual Enchanted Summer Day event. Young visitors can peer inside to discover the secrets of the tree.

31st Annual Point-to-Point
A little rain couldn’t dampen the spirits of thousands of Point-to-Point guests who came out to enjoy a day of steeplechase racing, tailgate picnicking, and family fun.

Honor Roll of Donors 2009

The Port Royal Society
The Port Royal Society honors those who have made a provision in their estate plans to benefit Winterthur. The society includes individuals favoring Winterthur through a bequest intention, beneficiary designation of a retirement plan or life insurance policy, or an irrevocable life-income arrangement such as a charitable remainder trust, charitable gift annuity, or the pooled income fund. We encourage others who have an interest in including Winterthur in their estate plans, or who have already done so anonymously, to notify the Gift Planning Office.

House of Style
At a daylong event at the Philadelphia Marketplace Design Center this October, Winterthur curators, conservators, and designer Thomas Jayne spoke to designers about the classic style and beauty of Winterthur.

Cokie Roberts Talk
It was a sold-out crowd when NPR and ABC news analyst Cokie Roberts came to Winterthur to speak and sign her books on America’s founding mothers. Roberts regaled the audience with fascinating stories about some of the most important women in our country’s history.

Paintings Conference
Using the Faces of a New Nation exhibition as a jumping-off place, an extraordinary collection of scholars explored the world of early American painting at this fascinating full conference. Workshops gave participants the chance for a variety of hands-on experiences.

Collectors Circle
At the annual meeting of this group of Winterthur’s most generous donors, participants enjoyed a day touring du Pont estates as well as special workshops with curators and conservators and early access to the Delaware Antiques Show.

Delaware Antiques Show—Thousands of beautiful antiques, knowledgeable dealers, and a special appearance by the Keno brothers made this year’s show one of the most successful in the event’s history.

New Castle County Cross Country Championships

Students from throughout New Castle County enjoyed the warm weather the first weekend of November as they ran the Winterthur estate in the 27th annual New Castle County Cross Country Championships.

Chic It Up!

At this special one-day conference on design, attendees enjoyed talks about some of the leading architects and designers of the 1940s—and added their own chic style to the event.

Family Floral Classes—Families celebrated the holidays together in style this winter at two special sessions on creating floral arrangements for the table.
Volunteers

Hundreds of volunteers regularly dedicate their time and expertise in every division of Winterthur. This year, volunteers assisted with large-scale events and programs such as Point-to-Point, the Delaware Antiques Show, Historic Automobiles at Winterthur, and Enchanted Summer Day. Others assisted with the daily operations of the Garden, Development, Collections Management, Library, and Public Programs divisions. Volunteers lead within the organization as well as through service on the Board of Trustees and various committees. Winterthur appreciates all volunteers who share their time in support of our mission.
