

WINTERTHUR SETS ANNUAL FUNDRAISING RECORD BY EXCEEDING $12 MILLION

Donation Level in Past Fiscal Year is First in Winterthur's History

WINTERTHUR, DELAWARE—Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library has set an annual fundraising record. An institution-wide effort over the past fiscal year has allowed Winterthur to surpass the $12 million fundraising mark for the first time in Winterthur's history.

"It is with great thanks and pride that we share this exciting news," said Dr. David P. Roselle, Director of Winterthur. "I hope everyone will take heart in the number and generosity of our friends, including many Winterthur employees, who contributed. The hard work and dedication of our staff and the volunteers make these goals reachable."

Winterthur received more than 12,000 gifts from nearly 11,000 donors. Significant gifts to Winterthur's endowment through the Campaign for Winterthur helped in achieving this record.

The gifts will be used for priority initiatives across the institution including key endowments, exhibitions, collections acquisitions as well as various capital projects and general operating funds.
